

November 18, 2016

To Whom It May Concern:

It is my great pleasure to recommend Madison Bonvissuto to your company. She is a student in my Level III Ballet Technique class as well as a company member in the dance company that I direct as part of Towson University's Dance Department for the past three years. She is a very gifted student showing both natural talent and exceptional work ethic. Madison is one whose abilities, I know will carry her far in everything she does.

I had wonderful experiences coaching her in the classical roles as well as various neo-classical ballets throughout her nearly four years at Towson. She has worked diligently on her speed, expression and versatility, transforming herself into a very dynamic dancer. Throughout our working process, I have discovered that she has the extraordinary ability to take risks and interpret the movements with accuracy. Her attention to this kind of detail will, undoubtedly, allow her to succeed. I believe she possesses what it takes to meet and exceed today's industry standard.

Ms. Bonvissuto is a very disciplined student. She understands that having a good work ethic is the key to achieving her goals and overcoming difficult tasks.

She also has good leadership qualities. She often takes the initiative to tackle the complex tasks set before her in a calm and mature manner. This is a great example for her peers to follow.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions via email at RDu@Towson.edu

Sincerely,

Runqiao Du
Lecturer
Towson University
Department of Dance

Department of Dance
Towson University
8000 York Road
Towson, MD 21252-0001
t. 410 704-4527
f. 410 704-3752
www.towson.edu/dance